PECCANTEM ME QUOTIDIE

The fear of death terrifies me, for I sin daily without repenting. Have pity on me, at least you, my friends, because the hand of God has struck me. Why do you pursue me as if you were God and sate yourselves with my flesh? (Job. 19, xxi-xxii)

